

Thomas and Ruth Rivers International Scholarship

It is with pleasure for the World Leisure Organization to announce that the Thomas and Ruth Rivers International Scholarship call for papers is now open!

The Thomas and Ruth Rivers International Scholarship is intended to provide opportunities for senior or graduate students who are studying recreation, leisure studies, leisure services, leisure resources, or tourism studies in college or university programs to attend and present a scholarly paper at the biennial international World Leisure Congress 2016, which is taking place in Durban, South Africa, between 27-30 June 2016. This year hosted and organized by the Leisure and Recreation Association of South Africa (LARASA).

Award winners receive a one-year membership with the WLO, registration to the World Leisure Congress, and financial assistance to attend the WL Congress.

The Thomas and Ruth Rivers International Scholarship was established in 1970 and is awarded biennially in conjunction with the World Leisure Congress. Funding for the scholarship is provided by the World Leisure Organization, sponsorships, and individual contributions.

Application deadline is 1st May, 2016.
